

Randy Brienen Biographical Synopsis

Randy was born in central Illinois and has lived in Tallahassee, FL for more than 30 years. He is married to Debby (also an artist) and has raised three children. He is a mainly self-taught artist working in acrylic. He has drawn and painted on and off most of his life. In 2007 Randy started painting seriously and immediately found collector interest in his impressionistic and abstract styles. His use of vibrant colors and bold textures are a creative interpretation of his subjects and surroundings.

Randy has been selected to exhibit annually, (2008 thru 2018) at Lemoyne "Chain of Parks" art festival. He has current exhibits at, Weezie's, Strauss Gallery, Canopy Rd Café, Riccardo's, and Homeowner's Collection Gallery in Seaside Fl. He served 2010 - 2012 on LeMoyne Center for the Visual Arts board of directors. He is a past Vice President of the Tallahassee Area Watercolor Society. He exhibited with his wife Debby at Tallahassee City Hall and LeMoyne in 2010 and 2016. He and his wife have a permanent 'Side by Side' exhibit at the TMH Cancer Center. He has exhibited at the Gadsden Arts Center by jury on several occasions

Randy's work expresses a variety of styles and techniques appealing to clients interested in contemporary and traditional art. He paints inspirationally and by commission.

Brienenart donates a portion of each sale to the prevention and treatment of cancer.
