

Joyce Estes

Joyce has been painting for 50 years or more. Her media is oil, acrylic, watercolor and silk on dyes. She designs silk fabric for home use as well as clothing. Many of her works are fine art and are shown in galleries over the US. She is past president of the Silk Painters International and is very involved with the International Silk Organizations.

She has opened "Joyce Estes Gallery" in the High Cotton Building on Water St. in Apalachicola Fl. The Gallery will feature only her art. She has also ventured out with her silk designs that are made in to wearable and decorative art.

Joyce is a Seascape and landscape painter in oils and watercolors. Loves nature and she works with organizations that are protecting our environment for future generations. Nature is the art of God, my prayer, let me do it justice.
