Women's Place Mixed Media Series 2020
The 100th Anniversary of Women's Right to Vote
Artist Statement

These pieces reflect my interest in uncovering stories about women and illuminating them visually with emblems of female identity, found objects, and natural materials. The desired intent is that these stories will allow women living now to see themselves in new ways. How could women's history have shaped our lives if it had been celebrated and exposed? As we discover from these stories, even in a patriarchal world a woman's place could be powerful, impactful, and of their own design.

These pieces are a collaboration between two artists, Nancy Jones and Diane Evans.
