

KENT PUTNAM
Photography
putnamk@comcast.net

Kent moved to Florida with his family at the age of ten. He immediately fell under the spell of the natural beauty of his new home state. He took up photography as a hobby as a young adult and made the transition from film to digital several years ago. His photographs have been selected for numerous local juried shows and have received many awards.

Kent is a member of the Florida Bar and is retired from employment with the State of Florida. Kent and his wife, Paula, and their cat Figaro make their home in Tallahassee.
