Gadsden Arts Center & Museum Munroe Family Community Gallery

The Gadsden Arts Center & Museum is opening a new gallery space on its 2nd floor dedicated to exhibiting art by local artists in all media and levels. Artists and artist groups can sign up for 1-2 month exhibition slots. The space is designed to be a learning opportunity for artists, with the opportunity to work directly with Gadsden Arts staff to learn about preparing artwork for exhibition, installing, lighting, and labeling. The Gadsden Arts Center & Museum does not sell artwork directly from this gallery, however staff will be happy to share the contact information of interested buyers with artists.
